WHAT TO DO IF YOU EXPERIENCE A LOSS

Here's what to do immediately after you become aware of damage or theft:

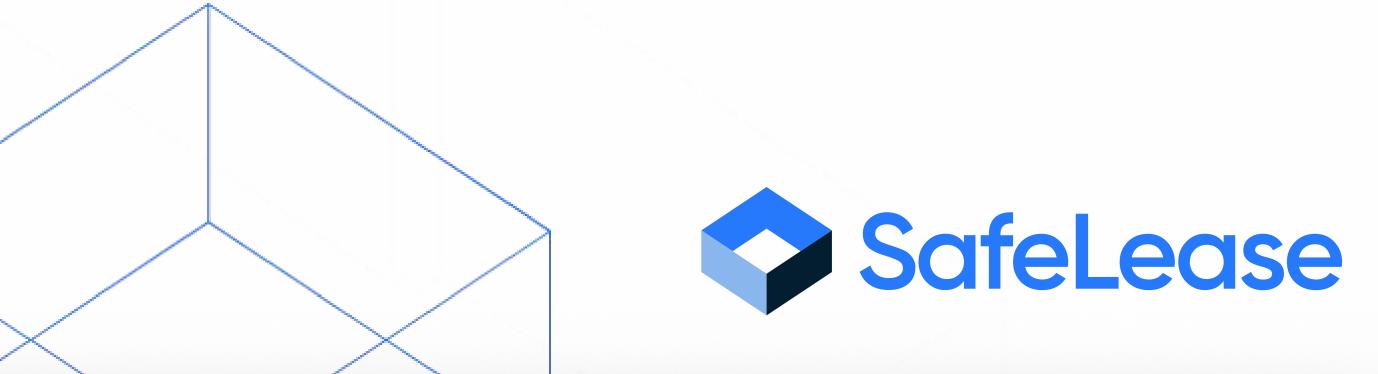

- Notify the storage facility
- Take photos
- Protect your property from further damage
- Keep your lock and damaged property
- Call the police and obtain a police report
- Be prepared to provide proof of value, i.e., sales receipts, photos of items stored in the unit, and other evidence of loss to the claims adjuster

STORAGE TIPS

Keep an inventory of your items and take photos

Store electronics in the rear of the unit

Always lock your unit with a cylinder or disc padlock

Place boxes on pallets, skids, or 2x4s

Cover your property with drop cloths or plastic covers

Avoid storing items that are not protected by your plan

INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR STORAGE INSURANCE POLICY

Your stored property is protected by an insurance policy administered by SafeLease Insurance. This policy covers your stored property from loss or damage that may arise from hazardous events.

PROPERTY INSURED

The personal property insured under each Certicate of Self-Storage Tenant Insurance consists of the personal property of the insured while in storage within the enclosed storage space described in the "Rental Agreement". We will also pay for direct physical loss or damage to "Vehicle(s)" stored outdoors at the leased premises described in the Certificate of Self-Storage Tenant Insurance and associated with any one storage unit.

We will also cover the personal property of others for which the insured may be liable or have assumed liability prior to a loss while in storage within the enclosed storage space described in the "Rental Agreement". However, we will not cover the property of "Owner" whether it is within or outside such enclosed storage space.

COVERED CAUSES OF LOSS

Protect your belongings with our comprehensive insurance coverage tailored for tenants of self-storage units. From burglary and vandalism to unexpected incidents like water damage or mold, our coverage offers a financial safety net for your valuable stored property.
